Cambridge Youth Police Academy

The Cambridge Police Department is seeking youth participants 14-18 years old for the 2009 Summer Youth Police Academy.

The Cambridge Youth Police Academy is a 6 week/ 100 hour instructional program designed to expose participating youth through hands on experience to the various duties associated with the Law Enforcement profession.

Youth will participate in classroom instruction and hands on workshops demonstrating the various procedures and techniques of real Police Work. Youth will participate in weekly physical fitness activities, learn self defense and become CPR and Heart Saver certified.

The C.Y.P.A. will operate Monday through Thursday from 1pm-6pm from July 6-August 14, 2009. Cambridge youth between the ages of 14-18 participating in the Mayors Summer Work Program may sign up for the C.Y.P.A. as their employment site.

Only 15 slots are available. The deadline to sign up is May 14th.
